

In 2015 Pope Francis called attention to the plight of the people fleeing from Syria and he reminded us that we are all brothers and sisters, and we are called to take action and to 'Welcome the Stranger'.

Caritas Diocese of Shrewsbury has been named by Bishop Mark as the coordinating point for Shrewsbury's response to the Refugee Crisis.

Come and find out how Caritas supports refugees in our Diocese

Mary Kilcoyne, CEO of Caritas Shrewsbury, and Rasha Youssef, herself from Syria, will outline the work that Caritas does:
